3 Report of the Treasurer.....JoAnne Mackewicz, Treasurer

Treasurer JoAnne Mackewicz presented the May 2007 Treasurer's Report. Of notable interest: $30 in gross income for the Spring Book Fair; $267.50 in gross income and $1560.20 expenses for the fall T-Shirt (made about $492); $6.00 PTA membership; $71.50 Misc Income (Pfizer matching donation); $1691.80 in gross income for SCRIP Sales and $796.20 SCRIP sales expense; $37.50 expense for Bailey's Garden; $67.50 expense for Babysitting; $183.15 miscellaneous expense; and $800 expense for the Lyman High School Scholarship

Motion to accept the May 2007 Treasurer's Report was moved by Aimee Spedaliere and seconded by Laura Davidson. There was no discussion. Motion passed unanimously.

4 Principal's Report/Parent's Advisory Forum.....Sandye Simon, Principal

LES Principal Sandye Simon presented the Principal's report. The School administration is currently in the process to set the 2007/2008 placement. The Talent Show coming up on Thursday June 7, 2007 in conjunction with the Reflections program. The LES School Band concert is tomorrow, June 5, 2007 at 7:00.

In regards to the School Budget, there will be no additional programs and no programs cut. The things that were cut were materials.

The School is still waiting for the door buzzer to be fixed.

The School will send a request home with the children to request they bring in their school supplies. Any child that cannot afford the supplies will be picked up by the scholarship funds.

5 Faculty Representative.....Gayle Solari

Faculty Representative Gayle Solari reported that the Field Day will be held on June 11, 2007.

6 Committee Reports

4th Grade Celebration.....Diane Adams

No report.

Bailey's Garden.....Jim Shifrin

Chairperson Jim Shifrin reported that the Fun Run had 184 participants and another $160 raised with online registration. The Lebanon fairground for the Music Fest are booked. Vendors are being sought. If interested contact a Bailey's Garden committee member if interested. Vendor booth's are $150 per vendor. 6 bands have been booked. Volunteers are sought to help with the music fest (parking, etc). Music Fest tickets are on sale locally at "Hair We Are", and "Murphy's Drive In". A Hebron church is holding a golf tournament in September with proceeds to Bailey's Garden.

The Bailey's Garden committee is in discussion with the BOE to spend money to purchase landscaping and maybe install the initial phase I by fall.

Book Fair.....Open

No report

Board of Education / Board of Finance.....Suzanne Yeo

Chairperson Suzanne Yeo reported that Carolyn Risly passed away last week. Republicans will replace the position. Lebanon is the only district that does not have a general music program for 5th/6th grade. It appears that the BOE doesn't think that people care because they don't hear the feedback from parents. Because of the cuts / status quo we continually loose programs/electives.

At the BOF meeting the budget passed and the Sr. Center passed.

Campbell's Labels / Box Tops for Education.....Sandra Spedaliere / JoAnne Mackewicz

Chairperson Sandra Spedaliere reported that she received confirmation from Campbell's Labels that there were 4410 points in May. 500 were deposited, which earned an additional 100 points for a total of 23,580 points. A flyer was created for distribution in a Friday folder to remind people to continue to collect over the summer. Parents are encouraged to register for a Campbell's Labels contest to win 1 million points.

Chairperson JoAnne Mackewicz reported that Boxtops are growing. 5230 were recently sent in. A flyer will be created and distributed in a Friday folder to remind parents to continue to collect over the summer.

Childcare – PTA Meetings.....Open

President Phil Johnson reported that there are three (3) childcare providers tonight with no donated services.

During discussion Laurie Shaw reported that the Butter braids fundraiser went really well with over 1100 pieces sold and we can still order them. A reminder that the Worthington fundraiser will occur in the fall.

Two potential fundraiser programs were discussed. One along the lines of Build-a-Bear to potentially occur with the read-in. And the second is to sell bike helmets to potentially occur with the Safety Fair.

8 Old Business.....Phil Johnson, President
Open Committee Chairperson Positions.....Phil Johnson, President

President Phil Johnson reported on some important committees with activities in, or beginning in, the Fall. Laurie Shaw will organize and execute the Worthington fundraiser, however she will need assistance. There is an open Chairperson need for the Book Fair. Laura Davidson and Joy Occhialini are members of the Health & Safety Fair, however we still need a chairperson. Kathy Jordan will continue to Chair the Professional Programs committee. Julie Bundy will continue to Chair the Room Reps committee. And lastly a Chairperson and members need to be identified for the Coffee Fundraiser. Laurie Shaw will help organize this Coffee Fundraiser. Contact President Phil Johnson if you are interested in any of these committees.
